

OPINION

VIEWS FROM INSIDE AND OUTSIDE THE H-Z

Korean veterans should not be forgotten in newspaper

In a recent Sunday edition, the description of the members of the Silent Generation said, "Many served in WWII or Vietnam."

Missing from the list was another conflict during that time: Korea.

We lost 36,000 of our kids there in brutal fighting while facing bitter cold conditions. Their silence is eternal.

Those troops deserve a mention.

*Star Carey,
Canyon Lake*